

World's Greatest Hobby on Tour

November 8, 2006

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Walt Disney Railroad Story Exhibit to participate in the World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Shows in 2007

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour is proud to announce that the Walt Disney Railroad Story Exhibit will again participate in all five of the upcoming World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Shows. The Walt Disney Railroad Story Exhibit includes photos and artifacts from Walt Disney's railroad legacy which helped inspire Disneyland. In addition the exhibit is highlighted by a multimedia presentation by Michael Broggie, award winning author and the foremost authority on Walt Disney's involvement in railroading. Michael Broggie spent time with Walt Disney on Walt's home railroad and shares Walt's love of miniature trains.

In commenting on the Walt Disney Railroad Story Exhibit joining the show, show Chairman Dave Swanson said, "The Walt Disney Railroad Story is exactly the kind of professional family oriented attraction we want at our shows. I am thrilled to have it return for the next five World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Shows".

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour is designed to appeal to the masses and to introduce the general public to the hobby of model railroading in an exciting, family-oriented atmosphere. The show includes manufacturers, hobby shops, operating displays, interactive activities, music, workshops, and contests.
